the show there will be only two per-formances daily. Matinee at 2 p. m., evening 7.30 p. m. Special notice— Because of increased cost of theatre running and the expensive vandevilla motion picture form, and it has cre-ated a sensation in all the large cities. All who have read the imaginative stories of Juses Verne never dreamed that they would ever see them as he wrote about them, but the wonderful undersea photography made possible by the Williamson Brothers has made the improbable possible and now we see human beings astually walking on the bottom of the sea, the monster sharks in flerce combat, the workings of the submarine and all the sea life

Stuart Holmes in The Scarlet Letter and Charles Richman in the Seventh Episode of The Secret Kingdom, Features for Today and Tuesday—Coming Wednesday and Thursday, 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea.

The Scarlet Letter is the most pathelic story of love and passion ever told. For 50 years Hawthorne's famous work, in book form and on the stage, has driven home into thousands of hearts its terrible tale of justice gone wrong. Stuart Holmes is seen in the role of Pastor Dimmesdale, Miss Mary Martin as Hester. The seventh episode of The Secret Kingdom, starring Charles Richman and Dorothy Kelley, completes the program for today and Tuesday.

The most remarkable photoplay ever presented on the screen is the verdict of all who have seen Jules Verne's famous stories of submarine life in motion picture form, and it has created a sensation in all the large cities.

PRID OLD GUARD AT HOME-A VET-ENLANCE MUSICIOS.

With the airships a-flyin' around you An' the submarines under the son, An' the wireless waps of these new-fangied days. It sure is a new time to mei This strange style o' fightin' on sea an' It sin't like it was when I came on

When I charged in the old ranks of Jackson

An' Joined in the chaeses' for Lee
"Twas with flage flyin' bright, an' the foe was in sight.

An' the band, it played "Dixie" for mei
But there's no antisfaction in fightin' the Dark,
An' never in knowin' you're hittin' the mark!

You get to the place of the fighting.
There's never a flag you can see:
An' never a note from a war bugle's throat—
All still as a dead man could be!
Then the gas guns throw blazes all over the Night—
The never get used to the new wages.

But I'm sighin' to think: If our country Should hear the old war east

Private Doolan was six feet three inches in his socks. Beside him the sergeant on duty was a bantam.

"Head up there, Doolan!" he cried.
Doolan raised his head.

"Up higher," shouted the little ser-

"Am I to be always like this?" asked Doolan, staring away above the little man's head. "You are."
